Mr Snell and Mr Williams. I am writing to apprise both of you of an unforeseen and emergent family health concern that will make it difficult to attend to Ms Simmons' appearance tomorrow. My 19 month old son has been extraordinarily ill since last Friday and he was diagnosed with pneumonia on Wednesday after an 11 hour emergency room visit at Mt Sinai. Today we had an appointment with Beth Israel in Williamsburg to determine if further hospital care will be necessary. My wife and I have been instructed to closely monitor the situation and report to the local pediatrics emergency room at the first sign of any of the designated symptoms. Unfortunately this has prevented me from attending to my office and preparing Ms Simmons. I apologize for the late notice of this email and will be able to speak on the phone if either of you would like to discuss this matter further or select an alternate date for Ms Simmons' appearance if possible.

Best Regards,

U.S. v. Joanne Simmons
